

Dawn McCoy

leadership strategist ● speaker
coach ● author

BIO

The Honorable Dawn McCoy, MPP is a nationally-recognized speaker, leadership strategist, and published author. She is sought after to speak with corporate, government and academic audiences nationwide for speeches about effective leadership, community engagement, and personal growth.

Dawn founded Flourish Leadership Group, LLC to provide strategic services and professional development. From an eager Capitol Hill internship to an elected Sacramento City Unified School Board position and a 20-year career as a non-profit executive, Dawn's tenacity has empowered and inspired many to realize their potential and creative possibilities.

Dawn holds a bachelor's degree in Psychology from Howard University and a master's degree in public policy (MPP) from Georgetown University where she was a Bryce Harlow Scholar. She participated in Leadership America and she is a certified practitioner with the Connective Leadership Institute.

Dawn was born in Philadelphia, raised in the San Francisco Bay area, and resides in central Virginia.

SERVING OTHERS

- American Partnership for Eosinophilic Disorders Board of Directors
- Elizabeth Allen Award Service Award
- Children's Hospital of Richmond, Virginia Commonwealth University Family Engagement Award Finalist
- National Organization for Rare Diseases Advisory
- Points of Access Advisory Board
- Central Virginia Eosinophil Support Group
- Virginia Partners in Policymaking Program

Enlightened ● Enriched ● Empowered

admin@flourishleadership.com

DawnMcCoyBooks

@dawnmccoy02

@dawnmccoy02

